

The following U of T Jazz students are available for private teaching.

Rates are $30/half hour or $50/hour, except as noted. Travel is additional.

VOICE

Olivia DiGiammarino (Woodbridge, Vaughn)

Olivia is a 4th year jazz voice student at the University of Toronto. She teaches piano, voice and theory catering especially to young children. Olivia has been teaching in Woodbridge for the last 5 years and has developed a warm studio and atmosphere to inspire learning at any level. Skype lessons are also available.

olivia.digiammarino@gmail.com 416 807 0902 www.oliviamusic.ca

TRUMPET

Max Forster (East Toronto, will travel)

Max is a 2nd year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. You may have seen him around town with the street band The Sidewalk Crusaders. Max likes to keep things fun and interesting while focusing on trumpet fundamentals, jazz theory and/or improvisation.

mforster444@gmail.com 647-505-5149

SAX

Patrick Smith (will travel on TTC)

Patrick is a 2nd year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. He teaches saxophones, clarinet, flute and beginner piano, both jazz and classical styles.

patrick.smith628@gmail.com (613-697-8774)

Alec Trent (Coxwell & Danforth, will travel)

Alec is a 2nd year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. He teaches saxophone, piano and music theory, to students of any level.

alecatrent@gmail.com (416) 778-5619

Mike Wark (Bloor-West Village, will travel within the city)

Mike is a Master's student in Jazz Performance at the University of Toronto. He has over ten years of experience teaching private lessons in flute, clarinet, theory, improv, RCM prep, etc. His emphasis is on teaching music in a holistic way tapered to the student's level, ability and personal musical goals.

mike_wark@hotmail.com 647-268-4797 www.mikewark.com

TROMBONE

Modibo Keita (Toronto West, will travel within the city)

Modibo is a 3rd year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. Fluent in French and English, Mo has tutored jazz theory at a college in Quebec and taught trombone privately. He offers a methodical and rudimental approach geared towards mastering fundamental aspects of playing the trombone.

modibokeyita@live.ca 416-732-3693

Paul Tarussov (Bloor and Yonge, will travel)

Paul is currently a DMA candidate at the University of Toronto. He holds a Master's degree from the Juilliard School, and has studied with trombone greats such as Steve Turre, Wycliffe Gordon, Vincent Gardner, and Elliot Mason. Paul is an embouchure specialist who teaches brass students of any level, as well as anyone interested in mastering improvisation, composition/songwriting, or music theory.

paul.trombone@gmail.com 416-457-9641

PIANO

Reuven Grajner (Bathurst & Steeles, will travel)

Reuven is a 2nd year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. He teaches beginner-intermediate level piano and theory with the Ontario Conservatory of Music and accepts private students.

reuvenything@gmail.com (416)-706-5541 facebook.com/reuvengrajnermusic

Nick Maclean (Downtown Toronto)

Nick is a Masters student in Jazz Performance at the University of Toronto. An experienced pianist, synthist, and composer, he seeks to create a fun and positive learning experience tailored towards his students' interests and goals.

nickmaclean@rogers.com www.nicholasmaclean.com 416-389-2643

Logan Mills (Downtown Toronto, will travel)

Logan is a 4th year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. He strives to help students further their own interests and build a strong foundation in piano and improvisation.

lmills.rld@gmail.com

Ian Sinclair (Downtown TO, will travel)

Ian is a DMA candidate in Jazz Performance at the University of Toronto. He has taught jazz and popular music for over fifteen years, with students ranging in age from 6 to 60, and in experience from beginner to graduate student. He has served as a Teaching Assistant at U of T, and on the faculty at the University of Idaho and Vancouver Island University.

iansinclair.jazz@gmail.com 647 997 5468 www.iansinclairmusic.com

GUITAR

Patrick O'Reilly (East & Downtown Toronto, will travel)

Patrick is a Masters student in Jazz Performance at the University of Toronto. He teaches guitar at the Claude Watson School for the Arts (TDSB) in addition to teaching private lessons throughout Toronto. His teaching style is well suited to all age/skill levels.

patrickorf@gmail.com, 416-655-6341

Dan Pitt (Downtown Toronto, will travel)

Dan is a 2nd year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. He has played guitar in many groups from rock bands to big bands and everywhere in between. Dan welcomes students of any level and will steer the lessons towards the student's interest.

danpittmusic@gmail.com 647 472 1327 www.dan-pitt.com

BASS

Nick Arseneau (College & Spadina, will travel)

Nick is a master's degree student in jazz performance at the University of Toronto. He offers lessons on the electric bass or upright bass in all genres including jazz, classical to rock & pop. He welcomes any student, especially those interested in auditioning for a university or college music program, with an approach tailored to the student's interests and needs.

nickarseneamusic@gmail.com 647 462 9073

Alex Lakusta (Bloor & Dufferin, will travel)

Alex is a 3rd year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. He has played upright and electric bass for over 10 years in a variety of genres ranging from jazz to rock 'n roll. He welcomes any level of student as long as there is a serious desire to learn and improve. Lessons will be directed to your own interests in music.

alexlakusta@gmail.com 780 222 3829

DRUMS

Andrew Miller (Bloor & Dufferin, Downtown, will travel)

Andrew is a 3rd year jazz performance student at the University of Toronto. He has played drums for fifteen years. He loves all types of music, especially straight ahead jazz. His philosophy stems from his father who told him to constantly search for music and elements of music that interested him.

andrewmiller403@gmail.com 416 768 3098